MEDIA ADVISORY

Who: Kati Haycock, President of the Education Trust in Washington D.C. is regarded as one of the most powerful voices driving current education policy at the local, state and national levels. A recent survey of 179 education-policy experts concluded that no one, save Bill Gates and George W. Bush, has had a greater influence on American education policy over the past 10 years than Kati Haycock. A key architect of the accountability and teacher quality provisions of the original No Child Left Behind Act, Kati is currently at the center of the NCLB reauthorization storm. Be sure not to miss

What: "Education in Post-Bush America - Fictions, Facts & and the Future." She will share national and state achievement data, describing patterns for different groups of students as well as discuss some factors that contribute to significant gaps separating poor students and students of color from other young Americans.

When: Thursday, February 28, 2008

Time: 12:00 p.m. luncheon

Where: Sheraton Harbor Island West
Bel Aire Ballroom
