

THE ROTATOR

ROTARY CLUB OF SAN DIEGO

Vol. 95

April 30, 2009

No. 44

Editor:

I knew when I walked in that this would be a special meeting. Of course, that was partly because there were a lot more people there than usual—many members brought their spouses. And, unlike our usual arrangement of a piano off in a corner, there was one up on the podium. But what really got my attention (and my wife's) was that President Stan had on a pink shirt with a light blue tie and our guest speaker wore a light blue shirt with a pink tie. Is this a new fashion trend?

Pres. Stan called the meeting to order, introducing T.D. Rolf for our inspirational moment. This was followed by Greg Zinser on the piano and Steve Hubbard leading us in the Star Spangled Banner. Bert Wahlen, in his news report, talked about Congress, the NFL, and show business.

Kevin Ward introduced visiting students from Crawford High and Mt. Everest, a home schooling organization. Then we all sang Happy Birthday to Walter Barrett, a youngster of 90.

Craig Evanco handed out well-earned Club 33 fellowships to John Ahlering, Jo Dee Jacob, Dean Crowder, and Greg Zinser. The club thanks each of you for your cumulative $1,500 donations.

President Stan then exchanged flags with Diane-Sophie Angles, who is moving here from France. Jim Groen followed up with an announcement about a job shadowing program with Hoover High Interactors. Contact Debe Berger or Jim Groen if you have a job-shadowing opportunity. Then it was time to raise some money--$500 from Shandon Harbour and a combined $500 from power couple Katherine Kennedy and Robert Horsman.

Chair of the Day Ward Gill welcomed our visitor from the farthest, giving several gifts from his store of musical gifts from the San Diego Symphony, then, introduced our speaker, famed songwriter Marvin Hamlish, who immediately started cracking wise, while filling us with tidbits about music and musicians. Example—a classical musician will generally play from the score as written, while a pop musician will write all sorts of reminders on the score. Example—after we gave gifts to the visiting Rotarian from farthest away, he said that Rotary does what Jews do—eat cheesecake (our dessert of the day) and give away prizes. Example—he asked why we had a Japanese piano instead of a Steinway.

He played a pair of songs from the American musical theater-- One, from A Chorus Line and The Entertainer, from The Sting.

An Entertainer he was.

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

By Bruce A. Hunt
Executive Director

What can you do if you wish to promote your business or company to the Club 33 members?

We offer three opportunities to place your brand, service or organization in front of our membership: an ad in The Rotator, the sponsorship of the News during our weekly meeting and an ad in The Roster.

Every issue of The Rotator has space for a business card-size ad on page 2 underneath the E.D.'s column and between Quick Bits and the Calendar. The rate is $150 per issue and Greg Augustine and Jennifer Perkins are the sales force for this media. The issues of the Rotator are published on the Web.

One of our dulcet-voiced members always reads us the informative and humorous Club 33 version of the News at our weekly meetings. A sponsorship of this important opening section of our gathering is also $150 per meeting. Bert Wahlen or Michael Brunker can reserve you a date. The recordings of the meetings are posted on the Web.

The Roster, our membership and information manual, offers a long-term presence in front of our members. Most members keep The Roster at their office or in their briefcase or purse. A full-page ad is $1,000; a half-page is $500 and a business card-size ad is $300. Pauline Hill can reserve your spot in the 2009-10 Roster so give her a call at the office before May 15.

Don't be bashful. Let us hear from you.

PROM NIGHT CLOTHING NEEDED

Hi folks,

Monarch is on the hunt for prom wear for their gentlemen. They are in really great shape with prom gowns and really don't need to do a collection for the ladies this year (they partnered with the Princess Project and we have a local Girl Scout working on a Gold Star project to get the girls even more). BUT! The guys need to look nice too! They have boys ages 13-18 coming to prom so they can really use all sizes S-XXL. Waists 28-44.

Please help by bringing your items to our May 7th Rotary meeting or deliver the formal wear to Monarch (808 W. Cedar Street, S.D, 92101) the week of May 11-15.

Thanks in advance for your help!
