"Economic Forecast"

Bill Holland

and

Linda Stirling

Coming off the Dow 50%+ bounce from the mid March 2009 bottom, what is the forecast for 2010? Are the Bulls raging or the Bears hibernating? Will deflation or inflation impact the companies' ability to grow earnings and repopulate the workforce? Join Linda Stirling and Bill Holland for their look back at what was and forecast for what may be.

Chair of the Day

Club 33 Military Affairs Committee at the USO

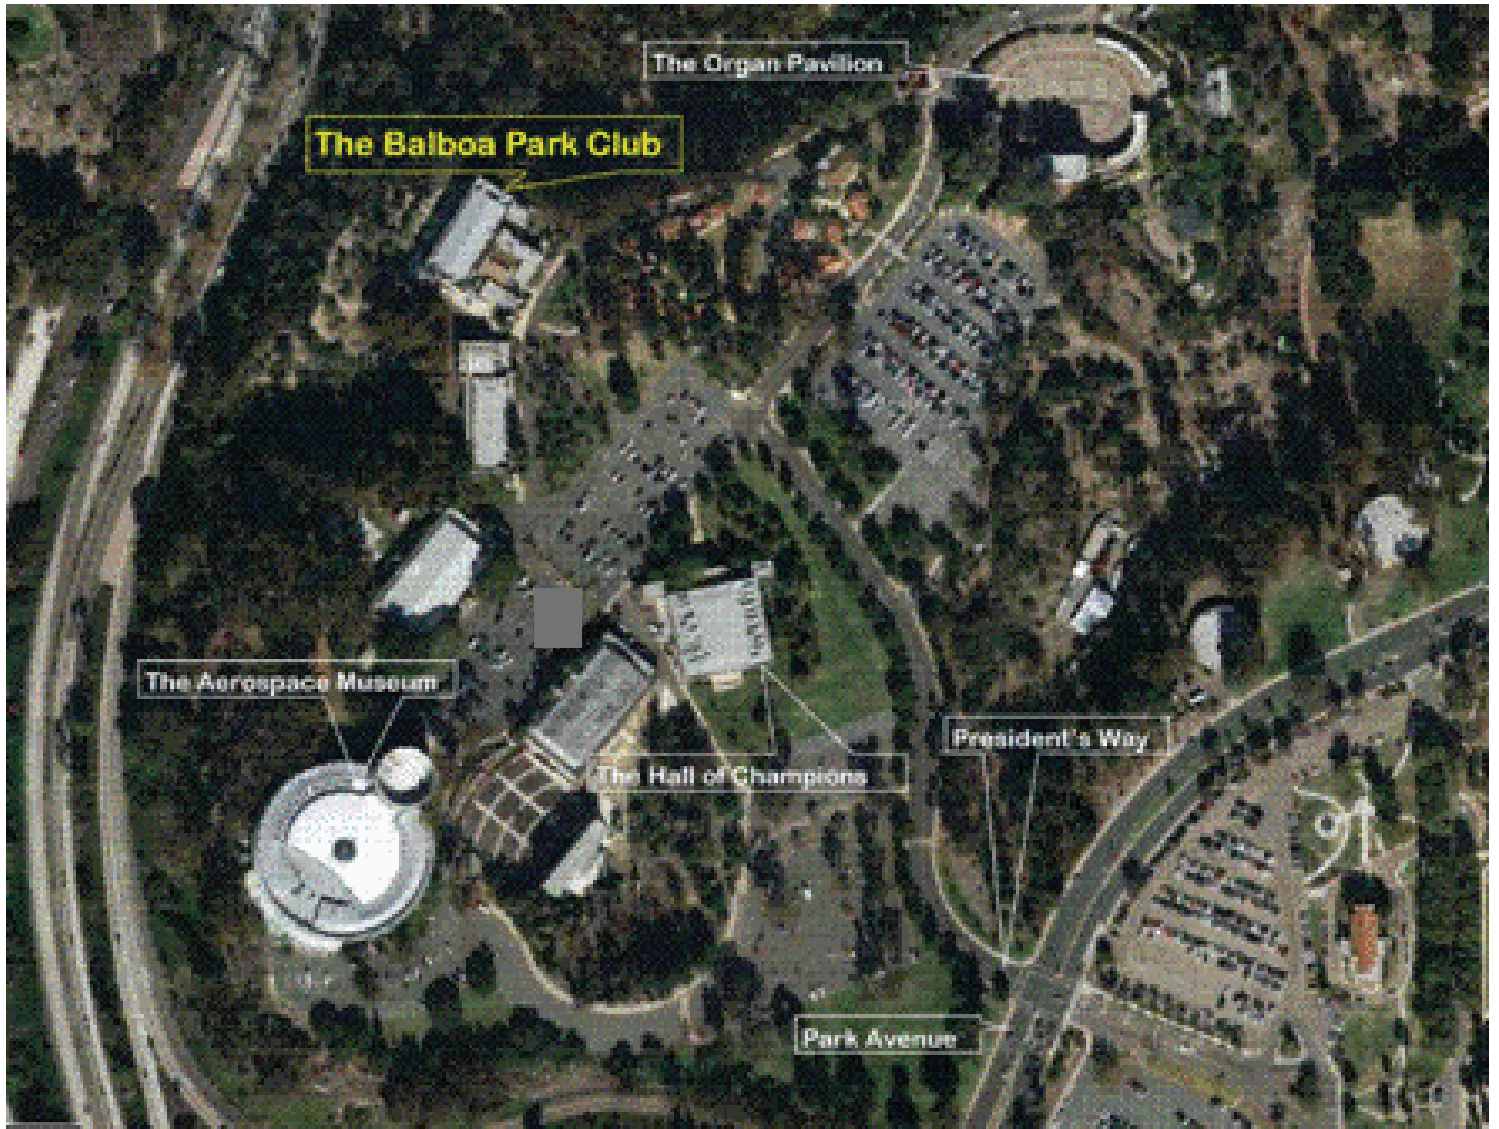

No one expected that the USO at the San Diego Airport would be so crowded over the weekend of Dec 18-20 but Mother Nature doesn't always send advance notice when she plans to send an East Coast blizzard. As a result of her bounty of snow, flights were canceled and members of our armed services were forced to bivouac in the USO lounge at the airport.

What was planned was the service by Club 33's Military Affairs Committee. Members signed up to help distribute food and drinks to the men and women who were on their ways home to see family and friends. The pictures are from the Saturday Noon team and include Kevin Clark, Hank Killmar, Steve Oggel and his guest, Bill Dick and Mike Caruso. The members may have stayed to distribute food on Saturday evening, too, because there would be hungry bellies to feed again.

The USO does not usually stay open 24-hours but the sturdy volunteers kept the place open because the military personnel had no where else to go and everyone wanted to be as close as possible to the departure gate if a flight was called. Scheduled to work the Friday night shift were Kevin, Bob Russell, Mike Rowan and Mike Caruso. I wouldn't be surprised to learn that many of our MAC members also did Sunday duty. Thank you for your service to our military personnel.
